AWARDS

Personalized trophy discs (delivered AFTER the event) in all divisions where there are at least four people playing. Also disc golf prizes and/or DGW Dough, redeemable for disc golf merchandise on site will be awarded to nearly 1/2 of the field.

DIVISIONS

Though not a PDGA event, we will be using PDGA player and local ratings as a guideline to help to ensure the fairest and most competitive play within each division. We will also use the PDGA guidelines that allow pros to play in amateur divisions. Give us a call to discover your player rating and/or to discuss which division is the best fit for you.

Advanced Men: If registered with the PDGA as an am with a rating above 934 you must play advanced. If registered with the PDGA as a pro with a rating below 970, you may play advanced. Intermediate Men: Rating cannot exceed 934 for either pros or ams. Recreational men: Rating cannot exceed 899. Novice men: Rating cannot exceed 849. Masters: (40 and older or turn 40 in 2008). Rating cannot exceed 934 if you're a PDGA pro master. Grandmasters: (50 and older or turn 50 in 2008). Rating cannot exceed 899 if you're a PDGA pro GM or older.

Advanced Women: Required if rating is above 799 for PDGA ams or below 850 for PDGA pros. Intermediate Women: Rating cannot exceed 799 for either pro or ams. Recreational Women: Rating cannot exceed 749.
